A WORD FROM PASTOR JEFF Martin Luther

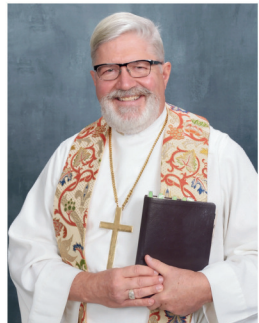

Martin Luther did not set out to become a brand name or a denominational logo. He was a simple monk with an overactive conscience. Luther's problem was not that he thought too much of himself, but that he thought too much of God—God as a vengeful judge with a taste for smiting sinners. He tried to pacify that God by fasting, confessing, punishing his own body, and climbing the ladder of good works rung by rung, only to discover that the God made known in Jesus is not a God of wrath but a God of mercy. Luther, hunched over his Bible, tripped over a phrase that would not lie still: the righteousness of God. He first heard it as threat—God's righteousness as the standard by which sinners are measured and found wanting. Then, he heard it as gift—God's righteousness given to sinners who have nothing to offer but their empty hands. The gospel, Luther realized, is not good advice about how to climb up to God, but good news that God has come down to us, stubbornly, bodily, in Jesus Christ.

Luther reminds us that the church is always one generation away from forgetting the gospel and substituting something cheaper: morality, nationalism, success, respectability. He calls us back to the scandalous claim that sinners are justified by grace alone, through faith alone, for Christ's sake alone. That is not a slogan for a bumper sticker. It is a word that topples empires and rescues frightened consciences.

We remember Luther not because he was right about everything—he wasn't—but because he was seized by a God who refuses to be bought, managed, or politely admired from a distance. A God who justifies the ungodly. A God who creates a church not out of heroes, but out of forgiven sinners who, like Luther, are surprised to discover that the door to heaven does not open inward, by our effort, but outward, by God's mercy.

PRESIDENT'S THOUGHTS

JERRY SOMA

2025 has passed and even though our memories fade, these are some of the things that took place at Lord of Life.

- We had over 140 opportunities to worship our Lord and Savior.
- There were over 100 classes that gave us a better understanding of the Scriptures and our place in this world.
- Music permeated both our Worship experience and special concerts throughout the year.
- Hundreds gave of their time and talents in over 60 volunteer opportunities. The hours would measure in the thousands.
- Our financial gifts met our needs at Lord of Life and also were spread across our community and the world.
- Our Pastors were our Shepherds; teaching, giving us guidance and helping us in our faith journey.
- Our staff worked tirelessly to keep things running smoothly.
- Our Lord was and is preparing us for a new Senior Pastor.

It was a good year for us at Lord of Life.

What is the vision for 2026 at Lord of Life? The future will unfold, God does have a plan. Will we step up to meet it? Our Lord has a plan for each of us. Will we seek it? The year 2026 gives us boundless opportunities, let's make it happen!

Nadaburg Elementary School District is currently in need of pencils, plain and lined paper, and glue sticks.

HELLO FROM THE LOL BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

All are welcome to attend the next book group meeting on Monday, February 23 at 1 PM at the church. This month the book selection is The Mystery Writer by Sulari Gentil. This novel is a literary thriller. In the story an aspiring writer meets and falls in love with her literary idol—only to find him murdered the day after she gave him her manuscript to read.

The book may be found at the local libraries. Also two copies are held in the church office and are available to be checked out. If using books from the office, please read in a timely fashion and return so other members may also enjoy the books.

Blessings,

Gail Muehling

The C.A.R T. (Caring Abundantly Received Thankfully)

Thank you for starting the new year with your abundant generosity of giving food for those in need. The photo shows just how many boxes and bags were collected on the second week of January!

In 2025 we had 403 boxes of cereal. In the next Lifelines issue we will reveal the final count for 2026. Thank you again.

WE NEED YOUR SPARE BEDROOM!!

We have agreed to provide overnight housing for students following the Wartburg College Concert on Thursday, March 5, 2026. What does this entail?

- Meet them in the social hall following the concert (signs for hosts will be provided)
- Take them to your home
- Provide a light snack when you get them to your home
- Provide a light breakfast for them the morning following the concert
- Return them to the church the following morning

Without fail, those of us who have hosted these young people in the past have very much enjoyed doing so. You will find them to be delightful guests. It is so nice to visit with them, and they are so appreciative of our hosting them. Please consider volunteering to host two or more students.

We need a minimum of 21 rooms to host the students. Please consider being a host!

If you are willing to host students, please contact Sherry Hoel, sehoel@yahoo.com, or 623-640-5459.

As the Tail Wags

MR. BANKS ANSWERS YOUR QUESTIONS

Hi, it's Mr. Banks! I'm back to answer your questions, share a few stories from my busy days, and, of course, wag my tail as much as possible. Maybe even sneak in a treat or two along the way—don't tell Pastor Pam! I love hearing from all of you and spreading a little joy.

Has Pastor Pam ever told you where your name came from? Everytime I hear it, it reminds me of Mary Poppins and I smile.

Pastor Pam has told me all about my name! My full, very official AKC Registered name is Banks Olesen Wolfe, which sounds quite serious and important. Thankfully, most friends know me by my much friendlier nickname, Mr. Banks. Whether you call me Mr. Banks or use my full fancy name, I'm always happy to be right where I belong — wagging my tail and doing my best to brighten your day.

So what might we do for you, Mr. Banks, to give you our love and appreciation in return? A special event, a bag of treats, a donation to your favorite animal shelter, therapy or service dog organization?

That's very kind of you to ask! Honestly, the best gift you can give me is your gentle kindness — calm greetings, soft voices, and understanding when I'm working. Those things help me do my job well and keep my tail wagging.

If you're feeling extra generous, sharing the love with a local animal shelter or a therapy or service dog organization would make my heart very happy.

As a therapy dog, are you allowed to visit people in the hospital?

Sometimes, yes! Therapy dog visits depend on hospital policies and health guidelines. When everything lines up, visiting hospitals can be one of the most meaningful parts of my work. A calm presence, a soft ear to scratch, and a quiet moment of comfort can go a long way — and I'm honored whenever I get to help in that way.

Thanks for your questions! I love hearing from all of you, and I can't wait to sniff out more answers for next time. Please submit questions to info@lolaz.org. Keep questions coming — who knows, yours might be featured in the next edition of As the Tail Wags!

MEN'S BOOK CLUB

Join the Men's Book Group on Tuesday, February 10 at 10 AM to discuss the book Separation of Church and Hate by John Fugelsang. This book examines how fundamentalism distorts Christianity, exploring what scripture actually says about the LGBTQ+ community, immigrants and the poor while reclaiming Jesus's revolutionary message. I have only just begun to read the book but it appears to be a no holds barred discussion of Christian fundamentalism and Christian nationalism. I am looking forward to our discussion, particularly how you think we can constructively discuss this topic with our acquaintances that may be on that path.

I hope to see you there!

THE SPIRITUAL CONNECTION A RELIGIOUS & THEOLOGICAL BOOKCLUB

Lord of Life University presents classes with Biblical and Community themes, but often a 4-week class just isn't enough time to discuss a 300+ page book that has an in-depth Spiritual impact. Such a book needs time to read, digest, and discuss. Therefore, it seems appropriate that LOL creates a bookclub dedicated to topics that can encourage, rejuvenate, and steady us on our walk with the Lord.

Some initial book ideas include Falling Upwards by Richard Rohr, A Mere Christianity by C.S. Lewis, and The Lutheran Trump Card by Dave Daubert.

We will conduct an introductory meeting of THE Spiritual connection Book club

FROM HUMBLE BEGINNINGS TO LASTING LEGACY

What began as a simple, faithful idea has grown into something far greater than anyone could have imagined. The Lutheran Thrift Shop was founded with a vision—one rooted in service, generosity, and trust that God could use even small beginnings to make a meaningful difference. Our founder, Dot Nelson, dreamed of a place where donated items and willing hands could be transformed into hope for others.

From modest beginnings, the Lutheran Thrift Shop has grown into a vital resource for the West Valley community. Through faithful stewardship and the dedication of hundreds of volunteers over the years, the shop has been able to give millions of dollars back to West Valley nonprofits—supporting food banks, shelters, social service agencies, and countless programs that lift up our neighbors in need.

None of this would be possible without the people who give their time, talents, and hearts. For more than 30 years, generations of volunteers have sorted, priced, stocked, greeted, prayed, and served—often quietly and humbly—making a powerful impact far beyond the walls of the shop. Their service is the true foundation of our success.

We believe Dot Nelson would be incredibly proud to see how her vision has grown, not just in size, but in purpose and impact. Her dream continues to bear fruit through every donation received, every volunteer shift served, and every nonprofit supported.

As we look forward, we invite you to become part of this legacy. Whether through volunteering, donating, or simply sharing our story, you help carry forward a mission rooted in faith, service, and love of neighbor. The Lutheran Thrift Shop is more than a store—it is a ministry, a community, and a living testament to what can happen when God's people work together. Would you like to become a part of our story? Stop by and get a tour or call the shop 623.815.7061.

GLEANING

Yes, it is that time of year again, time to sign up to have your citrus picked. Your Lord of Life gleaners will again be working with St. Mary's Food Bank to provide the service to West and Grand home owners of picking their citrus trees. The fruit, if this is what the home owner decides, will be distributed to those individuals seeking food from St. Mary's.

We will be picking once a week starting in mid-January through March but I recommend you call now to get your wishes known. You can request when you'd like your fruit picked and we will attempt to honor that although it is not possible to pick everyone the third week in March.

The number to call to get on the list to have fruit picked is 608-225-8882. It is also the number to call if you would like to join the fun crew who are doing the picking, getting exercise and enjoying the camaraderie.

THINKING ABOUT JOINING LORD OF LIFE?

Do you know we have TWO types of membership?

Full members hold membership exclusively at Lord of Life so that they may participate in the life and mission of this congregation. They have all the privileges and duties of membership including voting rights and eligibility for elected offices and membership on the Congregation Council of this congregation, as well as voting delegates to Assemblies and Conferences in which the congregation is entitled to representation.

Associate members hold membership in other Christian congregations and wish to retain such membership, but desire to participate in the life and mission of this congregation. Or, they may wish to retain a relationship with this congregation while being members of other congregations. They have many of the privileges and duties of membership including voting rights, but they are not eligible for elected offices or membership on the Congregation Council of this congregation, nor can they serve as voting delegates to Assemblies and Conferences in which the congregation is entitled to representation.

To learn more about membership, or to attend New Member Orientation this month, please contact the Church Office at 623-584-2000.

UPDATED PHOTOS FOR LOL ONLINE DIRECTORY

Have you taken a look at the Lord of Life Online Directory lately and thought it might be time for an updated photo? Whether your hairstyle has changed, you've added a new smile, or it's simply been a while, we'd love to help you refresh your directory picture.

The friendly staff in the church office are happy to take a new photo for you at your convenience. Just give us a call at (623) 584-2000 to schedule an appointment, and we'll be ready to welcome you when you arrive. Thank you for helping us keep our directory current and connected!

LOVE THAT BRINGS LIFE (AND MAYBE SOME CHOCOLATE)

February often brings hearts, cards, and reminders of Valentine's Day—along with chocolate showing up in places it normally doesn't. As a Parish Nurse, I see this season as a gentle invitation to reflect on love in its truest form: love comforts, strengthens, and connects us.

Jesus tells us in John 10:10, "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly." Abundant life doesn't mean we always feel energetic, organized, or on top of things. It means we are held in God's care—body, mind, and spirit—even on the days when we misplace our glasses, forget why we walked into a room, or eat one more chocolate than planned.

Love often shows up in quiet, meaningful ways: a kind word, a shared prayer, a casserole left at the door, or a simple "How are you really doing?" These small acts of love help bring God's abundance into everyday life.

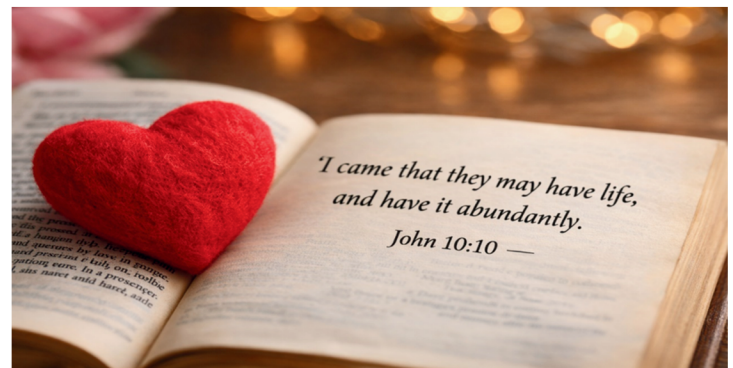

For some, this month is joyful; for others, it may feel tender or even a little long. If Valentine's Day brings mixed emotions, please know you are not alone. A smile, a note, or a warm conversation can be a blessing—both to give and to receive.

As your Parish Nurse, my hope is that you feel surrounded by care this month. May your days include moments of rest, laughter, good connection, and reminders that you are deeply loved—by God and by this church family.

And if chocolate happens to be part of your self-care this month, enjoy it with gratitude.

With warmth and blessings,

Parish Nurse
